

Career Objective

A senior design position utilizing experience and education in marketing, management, print design, web design, and related technologies.

Highlighted Achievements

Web and Multimedia Design

- Designed website for the Southern Sudanese Statistical Agency using an advanced CSS standards solution so that they could communicate with other international statistical offices, the press, and the public. See www.sccse.org
- Worked with multiple departments and vendors as lead designer on a e-commerce website for the IMF See www.imfbookstore.org
- Designed and developed and maintained a community website for the Mountain Club of Kenya. See www.mck.or.ke
- Designed and developed a website for a guest house in Kenya using interactive flash elements and my own photography.

Print Design and Production

- Designed and produced covers, laid out pages, created tables, and worked closely with editors to locate photographs and images for quarterly 4-color journal, Alcohol Research & Health.
- Led all proposal related design activities including: cover design, word templates, business and technical illustrations and web and marketing materials. Winning bids included NeuStar's .BIZ and .US and Verisign's .NET proposals
- Designed full page ads for business groups that appeared in the Wall Street Journal and Washington Post.

Computer Skills

- Hardware: Expert in the use, diagnosis, and repair of: Macintosh computers, scanners, and printers, computer networking, especially with Mac's on a PC network.
- Software: Expert in HTML, XHTML, CSS, Dreamweaver, Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, QuarkExpress, Flash, and Acrobat. Working knowledge of: JavaScript, PHP, MYSQL, PowerPoint, Word, and Excel.

Education

B.S., Virginia Tech, Marketing Management, 1989

60 credit hours Graphic Design, Fine Art, Photography, 1991-1995

Work History

Freelance Web/Graphic Designer, March 2003—Present

Manager, Graphic Design and Production, NeuStar Inc. November 2000—March 2003

Graphic Designer, CSR Inc. March 1997—August 2000

Freelance Graphic Designer, October 1995—November 2000

Branding

- Established the NeuStar corporate brand, which included the style guide for logo usage, corporate colors, and fonts.
- Designed a pictorial logo for the 2007 Census of Sudan that communicates in several languages.
- Designed logo, marketing materials for Vespucci, a mobile geo-location technology startup.
- Designed logo and webpage banner for the International Monetary Funds online bookstore.

Illustration

- Created a color coded informational map for the opening ceremonies for the WWII Memorial.
- Worked with VeriSign's engineers to create computer drawings to illustrate complex technical information.
- Illustrated medical concepts for NIAAA's magazine Alcohol Research & Health.

Design Management

- Hired and managed graphic designers and a production coordinator; and managed department procurement.
- Designed and implemented job management and tracking systems including an online job request form for NeuStar.
- Managed vendor relations for printing services, display systems, and promotional products.